What was your greatest professional accomplishment in 2018? - by Keith Shaw

Delphi Construction, Inc.

As a client focused company, our first concern is with how well we are serving our clients versus any internal business metric or industry accolade.

With this in mind, I would say I am most proud of the hard work, skill and creativity displayed every day by our project delivery teams out in the field. 2018 saw the largest number of active projects to date in Delphi's 26-year history.

I have been proud of our team's continuous efforts to put our clients' needs first at every turn and by their relentless pursuit of what we call "A+ Project Delivery."
