PTC's new global headquarters in the Seaport District is more than notable: The company's move from Needham to Boston is a key part of the company's business transformation. It's a whole different mindset moving from a suburban to an urban space, and PTC's leadership is changing its workplace strategy to anticipate the technology and workforce of the future. It's an exciting time for them, and MPA is proud to be an agent of that change by designing their new headquarters.
