Delphi Construction, Inc.

In terms of our higher profile projects, I would point to the Harborwalk Apartments on the waterfront in Plymouth, Mass.

With this first phase of construction consisting of a large four-story building with 155 units, this is not only a significant project in terms of dollar value, it's also one of the more visible projects being managed out of Delphi's Cape Cod office.

It is exciting to help bring this landmark project to life in our own backyard.
