DeStefano Architects renovates 2,200 s/f office space

February 01, 2019 - Northern New England

Lisa DeStefano,
DeStefano Architects

Portsmouth, NH Understanding the importance of creating efficient and inspirational work environments, DeStefano Architects is taking its own advice and remodeling their downtown office space. The firm will now have a new point of entry at 22 Ladd St. The renovated space is due to be completed this month.

“What a great experience to have the entire team work on our design. Each team member brings their own expertise and passion for the workspace to the project. We have a collaborative plan, one that has been exciting to watch as the transformation unfolds,” said Lisa DeStefano, founder and principal architect.

All other contact information for the firm, including business phone number, staff email addresses and company website remain the same.
