Charles Construction builds 5,000 s/f USA Ninja Challenge sports complex

March 15, 2019 - Construction Design & Engineering

North Andover, MA Charles Construction Company Inc. has recently completed the tenant build-out for USA Ninja Challenge, located at 27 Charles St.

The 5,000 s/f sports complex features dozens of interchangeable obstacles that will challenge children and young adults in jumping, climbing, swinging, traversing, and balancing. The space also features a private viewing area for parents, reception, and pro shop. USA Ninja Challenge offers 24 weekly recurring classes for children ages 4-17 years-old, camps, and private sessions.

Charles Construction Co. was contracted by Debra Mathias, of 27 Charles St. LLC the owner and manager of the property to acquire all permitting, architectural, engineering and design documents to deliver the ideal space for the new 10-year tenant.

The design team included architect Miika Ebrell of Miika Ebrell Design and Steve Houle of McCabe Associates. Both of which worked closely with Mike Noyes Chaz Matses, and Robert Miller of Charles Construction to turn the space around in 8 weeks.

The project consisted of comprehensive demolition to prep the once industrial space into its new use. Adding new restrooms, common area amenities, and redistribution of utilities for the new tenant and building alike.

“The deal provided 27 Charles St. with an off-hours tenant putting minimal strain on the buildings systems, parking, day time office, and medical tenants,” said Bill McGowan, the procuring broker representing 27 Charles St. LLC. “All parties worked closely together in order to create an ideal environment the thriving Ninja program.”
