Developer Olymbec USA continues market share growth in Connecticut

March 15, 2019 - Connecticut

960 Main Street - Hartford, CT

Hartford, CT Olymbec, the leading real estate developer in eastern Canada, has expanded their market share in the state through their Olymbec USA arm. Its recent acquisition of the East Market Portfolio consists of three large class A prestigious office buildings, two of which are in East Hartford and one in Glastonbury. This transaction brings the company's total ownership in the state to over 1.2 million s/f. Olymbec USA's portfolio in the state includes 960 Main St. in downtown, a historical building offering office and retail spaces for lease. They have since consistently expanded into the East Hartford, Middlebury and Glastonbury markets.

Olymbec USA looks forward to its continued expansion in the Connecticut market and to add new assets to its portfolio. Backed by 45 years of experience, Olymbec's reputation of experienced owners with in-house property management allows them to execute numerous building improvements and advanced technological initiatives to their portfolio's assets. This can include the installation of new parking systems, security systems, emergency services for tenants, undertaking complex construction projects and more.
