Bowdoin Construction Corp. hires Roman as a senior project manager

April 05, 2019 - Owners Developers & Managers

Needham Heights, MA Bowdoin Construction Corp. of has hired Stacy Roman as a senior project manager. Roman, will be a key player with strengthening Bowdoin's work in the corporate interior market.

Prior to joining Bowdoin, Roman was most recently with Commodore Builders.

When asked about her new role, Roman said, "One of my goals is to bring my own knowledge and experience in the corporate tenant interiors to Bowdoin."

"We are truly excited to have Stacy join our team. Stacy has over 17 years of management experience working in the corporate interior market and we look forward to expanding our presence in this market under her leadership. She is also an advocate for 'Women in Construction' and a mentor to young women starting their careers in the business, providing a voice and energy that is essential to the future of the industry," said Andrew Buckman, vice president at Bowdoin.
