July 30, 2008 - Connecticut

The Connecticut/Western Massachusetts Chapter of SIOR recently inducted two new active members to the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors. The SIOR designation is a mark of their professionalism and individual accomplishments in the industrial and office real estate industry. The entire chapter extends congratulations to its newest members.

Inglese's focus is primarily on investment sales transactions along the I-91 corridor in New Haven and Hartford Counties.

Inglese is a graduate of the University of Connecticut with a B.S. in Business Administration. He resides in New Haven with his wife Ellen. He is also involved in his community as a member of the board of directors of the Clifford Beers Child Guidance Clinic for the past six years.

Alan Bolduc began his real estate career in Connecticut and joined Sentry Commercial in 2003 after more than 20 years as a telecommunications executive with both operations and sales expertise. He specializes in the sales and leasing of industrial real estate in Connecticut for both user and investor markets.

Bolduc is a licensed broker in Connecticut and Massachusetts, and earned the Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation in 2007.
