Erfe joins Richards Barry Joyce & Partners

August 07, 2008 - Front Section

Richards Barry Joyce & Partners, LLC (RBJ) welcomes Vincent Erfe to the firm as an analyst in its Consulting Services practice. RBJ's consulting services practice delivers strategic real estate decision support to the firm's corporate clients.

In his new role, Erfe will focus on corporate real estate consulting and financial analysis. Prior to joining RBJ, he was the finance director for a multi-family real estate business, Hilda's Houses, in R.I.. He performed financial analysis on investment properties, created and implemented a new business operations organizational system, and was responsible for cash flow operations. Previously, Erfe was a Congressional legislative aide to a member of Congress and a research assistant for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, where he performed analysis on complex legislative issues to support policy decisions. He earned an M.B.A. from the University of Maryland and a B.A. from the Johns Hopkins University.

"Our consulting services practice works across many functional areas of our clients' organizations, including real estate, HR, finance and operations. said Brian Cohen, VP of consulting services, RBJ.
