

nerej

Hunneman hires Farnum as executive vice president and principal in Boston

May 31, 2019 - Front Section

Peter Farnum

Boston, MA Peter Farnum has joined Hunneman's brokerage team as executive vice president and principal. Farnum joins Hunneman with thirty years of commercial real estate experience with a focus in the city's Back Bay and Financial District.

Prior to joining Hunneman, Farnum was an executive managing director at Cushman & Wakefield and an executive vice president/principal with the Trammell Crow Co. Additionally, Farnum was a founding partner of FHO Partners, which was then acquired by Cassidy Turley and eventually the successful acquisition led by private equity shop TPG and industry peer DTZ. Farnum has experience with national and international representation of companies and organizations such as: AARP, Bank of America, Wachovia, KeyBank, Outstart, Choate Hall & Stewart and Applied Insurance Research. Some of Farnum's recent notable deals include the GBREB renewal at 1 Center Plaza, Anchor Capital's relocation to 2 International Place, and Winn Cos.' relocation to One Washington.

"We are excited to have Peter join our downtown brokerage team," said Peter Evans, executive vice president and managing partner. "Peter's seasoned commercial real estate career and proven track record make him a great addition to our broader advisory team and specifically our urban leasing group."

"Joining Hunneman provides me with the opportunity to work with an outstanding group of veteran brokers and a hands-on leadership team," said Farnum. "I am excited to contributing both my experience in developing new business and servicing existing clients, as well as mentoring some of the greener members of the brokerage team."

New England Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540