Portsmouth, NH According to Gil Borok, chief operating officer of Colliers International Group Inc., David Choate III, has been inducted into the Everest Club for the fourth year. The Everest Club recognizes the top 10% of all Colliers professionals in brokerage, valuation, and corporate solutions in the U.S., based on revenue production.

Choate was also recognized by the Colliers New Hampshire office as its top producer for 2018. “Year after year, David provides our New Hampshire-based professionals with the finest example of high-level dedication to providing tireless, professional service and expertise to our client base” said Bob Rohrer, managing director of Colliers International | New Hampshire.
