The Wellesley Galleria, located at 75-79 Central St., is a 13,252 s/f retail and office building located in a shopping area on the city's Central St. Situated less than a quarter mile from Rte. 16, three miles from I-95/Rte. 128 and Rte. 9, and near Wellesley College, the property's location provides access for future students and families attending classes at iCode.

"iCode takes great pride in announcing that after much demand we are expanding to the New England region, with our new Wellesley location serving as our first campus in Massachusetts," said Ganesh Shastri, president of iCode Wellesley. "Wellesley Galleria's central location, visibility and unique design make it a perfect fit for iCode to enter this new market."

"We are thrilled to welcome iCode as a Bulfinch tenant," said Wilcox. "iCode's unique combination of technology and state-of-the-art curriculum will offer students a wide range of opportunities. Their vision of strengthening future, high-tech leaders through experiential learning aligns with Bulfinch's entrepreneurial spirit and commitment to science and technology in greater Boston."

iCode was founded in Dallas, Texas in 2015 and provides a variety of unique student curriculum programs for science, technology, engineering, arts and math (STEAM) education to students in first through 12th grades. Designed as a high-tech campus, iCode offers after-school, weekend and summer programs in STEAM courses and computer programming designed to provide today's students with the experience and technical skills needed to be future high-tech leaders. Additionally, iCode also offers adult bootcamps to help adults learn new technology skills for the workplace.
