Acella Construction completes addition at the Espirito Santo Church

August 07, 2008 - Spotlights

Acella Construction Corporation has completed an addition at the Espirito Santo Church owned by the Roman Catholic Bishop of Fall River. Located at 311 Alden St., the 500 s/f addition to the Espirito Santo Church revolves around a 45 ft. bell tower and new circular chapel addition, with a patio and pergola. Along with new lights and a 12 ft. copper cross on top, the tower is also home to the original Espirito Santo Church bell dated 1910. The bell was removed from the existing school, sent to Ohio to be refurbished, and now hangs as a proud centerpiece on the new tower.

Acella worked in conjunction with architectural design team Annino Inc. based in North Attleboro.
