Thru the Lens: Metro Walls hosts First Annual Rally for a Cause

October 11, 2019 - Front Section

Manchester, NH Metro Walls would like to thank all who participated in their First Annual Rally for a Cause, a motorcycle ride for charity! This year's beneficiary was The National Pancreatic Cancer Foundation. With "Mike's Match," $1,585 was raised for this cause. The trip started at Metro's home base in the city and ended at the well-known Broken Spoke Saloon in Laconia, NH. Motorcycle enthusiasts from Metro Walls, Exterior Designs, Atlantic Prefab, and Patriot Building Systems all attended.

"This year we had 25 riders and our goal is to grow this tradition. This event was both fun and rewarding. It was a chance to spend time with employees and friends while giving to a cause that matters," said Mike Dion of Metro Walls.

Stay tuned for details on Metro's next charity ride!
