Gloucester, MA Windover Construction CEO Lee Dellicker joined executives from the Cape Ann YMCA, Sam Park and Company, and the Dolben Company, for a ground breaking ceremony of the new 65,000 s/f YMCA, the Glen T. MacLeod YMCA. The facility is to be built as the centerpiece of a project that will include a 200-unit rental housing complex and 25,000 s/f of retail space adjacent to the neighboring Gloucester Crossing. The new YMCA will have an eight-lane pool, room for 76 preschoolers at a time, and other amenities. The facility is slated to open in the winter of 2020.
