Cambridge Savings Bank hires Bobbin

November 22, 2019 - Retail

Cambridge, MA According to Cambridge Savings Bank (CSB), one of the oldest and largest community banks in Mass., John Bobbin, first vice president, senior asset-based lending officer, has joined its asset-based lending team, which sits under CSB's well-established corporate banking division.

In his new role, Bobbin will be responsible for managing a portion of CSB's ABL current portfolio of asset-based lending relationships, as well as establishing new asset-based lending relationship opportunities. He will also be contributing to the underwriting, closing and on-boarding of new asset-based lending relationships.
