Favreau launches Caring Transition of Greater Portland

December 06, 2019 - Northern New England

Portland, ME Aimee Favreau has launched her new business, Caring Transition of Greater Portland. This new senior-focused relocation and estate-clearing company serves Portland, South Portland, Cape Elizabeth, Scarborough, Saco, Old Orchard Beach, Biddeford, Alfred, Kennebunk and Kennebunkport.

Caring Transitions' services are perfect for managing the many aspects of a senior move or assisting with the process of downsizing to provide a safer living situation, as well as for busy families and people clearing out the home of a loved one who has moved into assisted care or passed away. All of Caring Transitions' services are customizable, so clients choose the solution that best fits their needs.

"I recently went through a move myself and it was incredibly stressful. When you are a senior surrounded by a house full of memories or you're trying to clear out the house of a loved one, it can be much harder," Favreau said. "Caring Transitions can handle transitions from beginning to end. We offer services everyone can use at some point in their life and we have the resources and specially-trained professionals to get you wherever it is you need to be with as little stress as possible. What would take most months to deal with can take a Caring Transitions team as little as a few days to a couple of weeks to complete."
