Consigli tops off Maine Historical Society Library 11,000 s/f expansion

August 13, 2008 - Construction Design & Engineering

The Portland office of Consigli Construction Co, Inc. recently topped off the Maine Historical Society Library 11,000 s/f expansion and restoration, marking a key milestone in the project.

The project will transform the MHS Research Library Building into a modern collections facility, while addressing significant storage issues, correcting structural problems, upgrading technology, and improving patron services and amenities.

The architect on this project is Schwartz Silver.
