Dembowski elected to MEREDA board of directors

January 03, 2020 - Northern New England

Tiffany Dembowski

Portland, ME Tiffany Dembowski has been elected to the board of directors of the Maine Real Estate & Development Association (MEREDA). Dembowski is state counsel at Chicago, Commonwealth & Fidelity Title Insurance Companies. In this role, Dembowski provides underwriting support, counsel, and authorization to agents related to the issuance of real estate title insurance commitments and policies.

A graduate of the University of Maine School of Law, Dembowski is admitted in both Maine and New Hampshire.

In addition to stepping onto the MEREDA board, Dembowski will also participate as co-chair of MEREDA's public policy committee.

"Tiffany will be a great addition to the MEREDA board. She has been active already on the Public Policy Committee, and we look forward to her participation now at the board level," said Shelly Clark, vice president of operations for MEREDA
