Lighthouse Electrical Contracting completes Davio's at Logan Airport

January 17, 2020 - Construction Design & Engineering

Boston, MA Lighthouse Electrical Contracting, Inc., has completed the electrical fit-out of the new Davio's Northern Italian Steakhouse at Logan International Airport's Terminal C.

The NECA Boston contractor's scope included providing the restaurant's electrical distribution, lighting, tel-data and security system installations.

Project manager Kenny Grant and Foreman Kyle Abel supervised the Lighthouse Electrical crew of IBEW Local 103 electricians in a fast-track two-month schedule. The general contractor was Hirsch Construction Corp.; and the project developer was Marketplace Logan, LLC.
