January 17, 2020 - Front Section

Guilford, CT Pearce Real Estate agents and staff from the local office participated in the 2nd annual Shoreline Loony Dook (Scottish for “lunatic bath” - a.k.a., a penguin plunge) on December 14th at Jacob’s Beach to benefit the Connecticut Special Olympics. More than $17,000 was raised by all the teams.

The brave members of Pearce Real Estate who took part in the icy plunge were David Mayhew, sales associate; Rob Curry, assistant manager; Virginia Van Norden, office administrator; and Lou Federici, neighbor and friend of Pearce Real Estate and an attorney at Parrett, Porto, Parese & Colwell P.C., who wanted to support the cause.
