Concord, NH The Associated Builders and Contractors NH/VT Chapter's Young Professionals Group (ABC YPG) Leadership Committee has elected their 2020 officers and directors. In her fourth year on the Leadership Committee, Katie Lopes Dillon will now serve as chair of the group. Dillon is the project coordinator at Nobis Group, an engineering and environmental services firm based out of Concord. Alongside her, serving as officers, are vice chair and director of events Nina Ann Timney, interim controller at Jeremy Hiltz Excavating; treasurer Michael Finnegan, advisor at Granite

Financial Partners; and secretary and director of outreach Heather Prescott, commercial account manager at Cross Insurance. Michelle Trodella, senior manager of project administration at Methuen Construction, will continue in her second year as director of education.

“Considering both our existing and new Leadership Committee members, we are going into 2020 with a very strong and competent leadership team,” said Dillon, “and I am confident stepping into the chairwoman position with such a motivated and energized group on board. The ABC YPG’s constituency grew exponentially in 2019 and we look forward to hosting even more dynamic networking and education events for the construction industry and its peers in 2020.”
