The Lightstone Group signs lease to Nail Art at the Wintonbury Mall

August 20, 2008 - Retail

According to The Lightstone Group, one of the largest private real estate owners in the country, Nail Art, a full service nail salon, has signed a 1,006 s/f, long-term lease at the Wintonbury Mall. Nail Art will offer customers a variety of personal care services including manicures, pedicures, artificial nails and hand treatments. With this lease agreement, Nail Art joins an abundance of new tenants at Wintonbury Mall, including the Bloomfield 8 Cinemas, Arthur Murray Dance Studios, and others.

"The Lightstone Group has leased nearly 30,000 s/f of space at the Wintonbury Mall in just the past nine months," said Jeffrey Dash, vice president of retail leasing and management at the Lightstone Group. "Nail Art continues to add to the diverse selection of retailers, giving guests a variety of options when visiting the mall."

Wintonbury Mall, located on Park Ave., across the street from Bloomfield's town hall, has attracted a wide range of high-profile chains and highly acclaimed independent retail tenants such as H&R Block, State Farm, CitiFinancial, Bank of America, Ginza Japanese Restaurant, Thai Palace, among others. The 110,579 s/f outdoor mall is located minutes away from Hartford.
