

nerej

L'Espalier moving to Mandarin Oriental Boston

August 27, 2008 - Front Section

Frank McClelland, executive chef/owner of L'Espalier, confirmed that his restaurant will move from its location on Gloucester St. to Boylston St. within the new Mandarin Oriental Boston Hotel & Residences on September 15th.

The Back Bay landmark will close its doors with a final dinner at 30 Gloucester St. on August 30th. L'Espalier's sister restaurant, Sel de la Terre, will also open its third restaurant at the Mandarin September 15th.

New England Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540