About the Series

Boston University's Program for Real Estate Studies is offering a complimentary, four-part webinar series on how the future of commercial real estate industry could unfold after COVID-19. Starting on Thursday, April 16th at 11 am, and continuing for the following three Thursdays at the same time, Center for Professional Education faculty and industry professionals will discuss the effects of the current situation on the industry. Among others, topics will include:

- Ethics v. Morals v. Legal Rights v. Good Business Practices with CV-19

- CV-19 Impact on office usage
- Impact of CV-19 on future commercial lease negotiations
- Resiliency and the Future of Real Estate

Speakers on April 16:

- Jonathan Keefe, program director for the programs in Real Estate Studies at Boston University; managing director of strategic consulting at Cushman & Wakefield in Boston
- Robert Nahigian, principal, Auburndale Realty Company, instructor, Commercial Real Estate at Boston University
- Michael Price, principal, Legacy Real Estate Ventures, LLC; instructor, Real Estate Finance at Boston University
- Greg Vasil, President, Greater Boston Real Estate Board; instructor, Real Estate Finance at Boston University
