Additionally, a new lease was executed with Coldwell Banker for a 2,886 s/f retail real estate office also scheduled to open this year. The tenant was represented by Joe Robinson of NAI Norwood Group.

Chris McMahon and Travis Ginsberg of Summit Realty represented the landlord, Gilford Airport Plaza LLC, in both transactions.

Airport Commons is a 62,000 s/f recently renovated retail shopping center situated on 10 acres. This property is located at the northern terminus of the Laconia /Gilford Bypass which offers visibility and market penetration in this busy retail corridor. These two new tenants will join Gilford Cinema 8 to drive significant traffic to the center. Summit Realty Partners is actively seeking tenants to lease the remaining retail space.

With over 25 years of experience, Summit Realty Partners is a full service commercial real estate firm headquartered in Lexington, Mass.
