The Bagel Table arrives at Boston Landing

May 22, 2020 - Retail

Brighton, MA According to NB Development Group, The Bagel Table at Boston Landing opened in January. The Bagel Table is a community-focused, New York style bagel shop with locations in Ashland, Chestnut Hill, and now Boston Landing.

“Boston Landing is pleased to welcome The Bagel Table to its roster of eclectic retail tenants on Guest St. Located on the ground floor of the Warrior Ice Arena, The Bagel Table not only has direct interior access to the hockey’s lobby but is also directly across the street from the under-construction The TRACK at new balance. The Bagel Table is a delicious addition that is sure to become a neighborhood favorite,” said Erin Harvey, senior leasing and marketing manager, NB Development Group.

The Bagel Table will offer breakfast and lunch options including bagels and schmeers, bagel sandwiches, pre-made salads, pastries, acai bowls, specialty drinks and more. The restaurant will have grab and go and made to order options as well as catering available for Boston Landing and the greater community.

“We are so excited to bring The Bagel Table to Boston Landing. Along with our original menu, we are introducing some items that will be specific to Boston Landing. The store’s gorgeous... you’ll see!” said Ed Eglitis, partner, The Bagel Table.

The Bagel Table will accompany great local retailers at Boston Landing including: the New Balance Global Flagship Store, Rail Stop Restaurant and Bar, NB Fitness Club, Kohi Coffee Co., The Flatbread Company Brighton, Cambridge Naturals, and Mainely Burgers.

“The Bagel Table is a family-run business that has truly become a destination for bagel lovers everywhere. The stars of the menu are the locally-made, New York style bagels, but they also offer a wide variety of excellent breakfast, lunch, and takeaway options. The addition of The Bagel Table furthers the mission of creating a vibrant ground floor retail community at Boston Landing, and the Graffito team is excited to welcome them.” said Dave Downing, managing director, Graffito S.P.
