Angel receives 2019 Power Broker Award

June 19, 2020 - Connecticut

Fairfield, CT Jon Angel, president of Angel Commercial, LLC, is a recipient of the 2019 Power Broker Award by CoStar Group, Inc., the data/analytics leader of the commercial real estate industry. Angel received the 2019 Power Broker Award for Top Office Leasing Broker based on the high volume of lease transactions that he closed during 2019 in the Westchester and Southern Connecticut market.

“I am pleased to have received this industry recognition,” said Angel. “As a family-owned company that has been in business for over 20 years, we have a great team that works diligently to provide superior commercial real estate services for our clients. Our extensive market knowledge has made us local industry experts for Connecticut’s Fairfield and New Haven Counties.”

The CoStar Power Broker Award program has honored the industry’s elite for 20 years. All commercial real estate sales and lease transactions that closed during the previous year are tallied to determine the winners in each market.
