Morrison joins Roche Realty Group

July 03, 2020 - Northern New England

Denise Morrison

Meredith, NH Frank Roche, president of Roche Realty Group, Inc. said that Denise Morrison recently joined the local office.

Morrison has been practicing real estate for 3.5 years. Prior to her real estate career, she worked as a residential and commercial real estate paralegal and tax representative handling residential tax abatements at law firms in Concord, and Dover. For 14 years, she owned a 400-acre certified organic dairy farm in Monroe, N.H., where she also had a greenhouse and landscaping business. Her early career involved working for the Vermont State Police for 11 years as a dispatcher, where she was a member of the Alpha Phi Sigma Criminal Justice Honor Society.

Roche indicated that Morrison's background as a paralegal and tax abatement specialist, plus her success in real estate sales, provides a broad range of experience. He noted that "Denise is 100% committed to the business, and is out there doing a great job with many satisfied clients. She is a member of the Lakes Region Chamber of Commerce, the Lakes Region, State, and National Board of Realtors and is a Notary Public and Justice of the Peace. She has a confident, easy-going personality, a positive attitude, and has an excellent attention to detail, and we are glad to have her join our Meredith office."
