Kimani joins TFMoran as summer intern

August 07, 2020 - Northern New England

Miriam Kimani

Bedford, NH TFMoran welcomes Miriam Kimani as a summer intern working in the civil engineering department. Kimani attends Lafayette College in Pennsylvania pursuing a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering. In 2018 she completed one year of studies in Physical Sciences at Jomo Kenyatta University of Technology & Agriculture in Nairobi, Kenya. Kimani placed in the top 5% of students in Kenya on the national graduation exam while attending high school at Vanessa Grant Girls' School where she was awarded Best in Mathematics and Physics. She currently mentors a youth-led group in Portsmouth that is dedicated to raising awareness and funds for Education For All Children.

EFAC is a non-profit organization which provides scholarships, mentoring and career readiness to Kenyan students. Kimani's engineering interests are in site design, water resources, and field inspections.
