Toppa of Lila Delman sells Georgian-style townhouse at 10 Franklin St. for $1.82 million

August 07, 2020 - Rhode Island

Newport, RI Lila Delman Real Estate sold 10 Franklin St. on Historic Hill for $1.82 million. Kendra Toppa, sales manager of Lila Delman's Newport office and Christie's luxury specialist, represented the seller and facilitated for the buyer.

According to data maintained by the Rhode Island Statewide MLS, this transaction marks one of the top ten residential sales in Newport year-to-date.* The property went under agreement after just two days on the market.

As a firm, Lila Delman is proud to maintain the highest market share of sold properties, across all price-points and specific to $1,000,000+ properties, in Newport and Newport County this year.*

"I am thrilled the seller of 10 Franklin Street entrusted me and the entire Lila Delman Real Estate team to market this exceptional property," said Toppa. "Its quick sale is a testament to the demand for Newport real estate, particularly close to Newport's vibrant downtown waterfront."

Zoned General Business, this townhome with water views affords the opportunity to live and work from home. A primely sited architectural gem built in 2000 to the highest standards, this Georgian-style home has refined period details across three floors of lit space. Measuring 2,796 s/f, the property features three bedrooms and two and one half bathrooms just steps to downtown Newport.
