Jewett Construction promotes Stinchfield to assistant project manager

September 04, 2020 - Northern New England

Becca Stinchfield

Raymond, NH Jewett Construction has promoted Becca Stinchfield to assistant project manager. Prior to her promotion, Stinchfield, who started at Jewett in February 2018, held the title of project coordinator.

“We are proud to announce Becca’s promotion to assistant project manager,” said Myles Cambridge, vice president of N.H. operations at Jewett.

“She has grown in Jewett knowledge these past two years working in the accounting department and as a project coordinator. She is a trusted and loyal team player. We are excited to see Becca step into this new role as such a valued team player.”
