

nerej

BOMA Boston update: Virtual college career panel & TOBY Awards

November 06, 2020 - Owners Developers & Managers

Last year the women of the BOMA Emerging Professionals Committee toured The Wing at 699 Boylston! We're excited to bring you the Virtual College Career Panel this year!

Boston, MA On Tuesday, October 21st BOMA Boston held a timely CRE Market Update where John Affleck, vice president of market analytics, with Co-Star provided an overview of what is happening in the office space locally and regionally. Shawn Carroll, vice president, CBRE, BOMA Boston's 2020 president then facilitated a discussion with industry leaders who shared what is happening in their different sectors and their views on the Boston CRE market currently and forecasting what is to come during these unexpected times

Please join BOMA Boston on Tuesday, November 17th, as we recognize the best and brightest in property management, building operations and service in the commercial real estate industry. Our entire membership and individuals from the local real estate community will come together virtually to find out who will win the coveted TOBY + Industry Awards. The program will also include a presentation of the inaugural recipients of the Larry Lenrow Education Scholarship as well as an update from BOMA International as we plan for the 2021 conference that will hopefully be held in Boston, July 2021. Tickets and Sponsorships are still available for this event! Visit <https://www.bomabostontoby.com/> or contact Kayla Burmeister, kburmeister@gbreb.com for more information.

Panelists from Rockhill Management, UG2, Usource and Flynn Law Group discuss their views on what is happening in the CRE market.

On Thursday, November 19th BOMA Boston is holding its first annual Virtual College Career Panel hosted by the BOMA Emerging Professionals Committee! The program will include an overview of the many different career paths in commercial real estate and a panel discussion with young industry professionals to dive deeper into five different sectors of the industry: property management, facilities/operations management, business development/ sales, broker, and development. This event is geared towards college students who are interested in commercial real estate and/or want to learn more about potential career paths! For more information, contact Courtney McHugh, cmchugh@gbreb.com.

BOMA Boston is pleased to present the Larry Lenrow CRE Education Scholarship to support entry-level commercial real estate professionals looking to enhance their commercial real estate careers. Larry passed away in June 2020, and he will be forever missed by the BOMA Boston community. This scholarship serves to honor his legacy as a dedicated real estate executive. Five scholarships are awarded annually and this year's recipients will be announced at the TOBY & Industry Awards on November 17th.

The commercial real estate industry has a professional certification that provides early recognition for foundational knowledge and guides the next generation of property managers toward greater responsibility and success in their careers: The Certified Manager of Commercial Properties (CMCP). The CMCP is the only certification of its kind for early career commercial property managers – you may qualify with as little as one year's experience. Learn more at <https://www.creci.org/the-cmcp-advantage/>.

For more information about events or educational offerings, and to get involved with BOMA Boston, visit our website at www.BOMAboston.org. Follow us on Twitter and Instagram @BOMABoston and on LinkedIn.

New England Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540