Integra Realty Resources hires Tripodi as associate director in Providence

November 13, 2020 - Rhode Island

Providence, RI Integra Realty Resources (IRR) has hired Robert Tripodi as associate director in the firm's local office.

Tripodi brings more than 20 years of industry experience in real estate valuation, finance and asset management to his new role, having held executive positions with prestigious publicly traded, Boston-based companies including Prologis and State Street. The Boston native will focus on serving current IRR clients, as well as growing the company's market share across R.I. and Southeastern Mass.

"We are delighted to welcome Rob to our growing Providence office," said Todd Isaacson, senior managing director at IRR's Providence and Hartford offices.

"He is a perfect complement to our best-in-class valuation and consulting team. His local market knowledge combined with his broad experience across the commercial real estate industry will prove to be a valuable asset to both our current and future clients."
