The Stubblebine Co. handles 98,782 s/f lease to Polar Beverages

December 11, 2020 - Front Section

53 Millbrook Street - Worcester, MA

Worcester, MA David and James Stubblebine, principals of The Stubblebine Company, and David Skinner, senior advisor, represented Millbrook Property Owner, LLC in the 98,782 s/f lease at 53 Millbrook St. They also directly procured the tenant, Polar Beverages.

Situated at the intersection of the I-190 and I-290 highways, 53 Millbrook St. is surrounded by numerous amenities. The property consists of 98,782 s/f building of renovated high bay distribution space on 4.72 acres with parking and ample loading capabilities along with an active rail spur.

While they have grown nationally, Polar Beverages remains a beloved New England staple. They are a family owned business since 1882 and to this day are still run by the Crowley family. Polar Beverages is the largest independent bottling company in the United States. They not only have their own Polar brands, but also have a strong brand partnership for bottling, private-label manufacturing, and distribution for regional and national brand partners.
