

nerej

National Development promotes Mayeux to vice president of the development group

February 05, 2021 - Owners Developers & Managers

Naomi Mayeux

Newton, MA According to National Development, Naomi Mayeux has been promoted to a vice president in the development group. Mayeux manages all aspects of the development process, including design, permitting, and construction. Mayeux joined National Development in 2014, and has taken on increasingly challenging projects primarily in the office and life sciences sectors. She currently serves as a project manager for two major life sciences developments in Boston. Some of her previous projects include the redevelopment of The District Burlington, and Siena at Ink Block and More Than Words in Boston.

Mayeux is actively involved with several industry organizations including the Real Estate Finance Association (REFA), where she has been a Board Member for four years and a Co-Chair of the Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee, and NAIOP Massachusetts. Naomi holds a B.A. in Economics from Connecticut College.

ABOUT NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

For over 30 years, National Development has been one of the most active real estate investment and development firms in Massachusetts. The firm has developed and/or acquired over 30 million SF across a broad range of product types, creating great places and attractive investments. For more information, visit natdev.com or follow @nationaldevelop on Twitter and Instagram.

New England Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540