NORTH HAVEN, CT Pearce Real Estate Co., was recognized with a top Member Achievement Award from Leading Real Estate Companies of the World (LeadingRE), a global network of market-leading independent real estate firms, during a special awards ceremony held virtually March 1st.

Pearce Real Estate won the 2020 Million Dollar Club award. Million Dollar Club is awarded to the company with the most outgoing closed referrals with an actual sales price of $1 million or greater.

“Once again the company has earned this prestigious award for referrals over $1 million,” said Barbara Pearce, chair and CEO of Pearce Real Estate. “I am so proud of the work and effort that earned us this award during the very uncertain and challenging pandemic,” she added.

“We are delighted to celebrate our members who went above and beyond serving the needs of relocating home buyers and sellers during a truly unprecedented year,” said LeadingRE president/CEO Paul Boomsma. “The evolving needs of homeowners resulted in increased activity for our network, whether relating to the demand for more space, the appeal of a change of scenery, the ability to work from anywhere or the desire to be closer to family.”

He adds, “While we normally present these awards during our annual Conference Week, which has been postponed until the end of May, we didn’t want to delay the opportunity to acknowledge their success.”
