UCONN School of Business Hall of Fame inductee - Nicholas Morizio

May 21, 2021 - Connecticut

Nicholas Morizio

Storrs, CT Nicholas Morizio, CRE, SIOR, a 1974 UCONN graduate majoring in real estate and finance, was recently inducted into the University of Connecticut's School of Business Hall of Fame. With over 45 years in the commercial real estate business, Nick is well into his fifth decade as one of the preeminent real estate brokers in Connecticut and western Massachusetts. He currently serves as president of Colliers International, overseeing their Hartford and New Haven offices. As a past president of the Connecticut/western Massachusetts Chapter of the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors, chapter members and sponsors are proud of Nick's market accomplishments over the years and the recent honor bestowed on him by the University of Connecticut.

SIOR represents today's most knowledgeable, experienced, and successful commercial real estate brokerage specialists. The SIOR designation stands unchallenged for excellence in the performance of real estate services and is universally recognized as the prerequisite in the selection of a commercial real estate broker, agent, or consultant.

Please visit the chapter's website (www.siorct.com) to find additional information on the Connecticut/Western Massachusetts Chapter, Chapter members, and upcoming events. Should you have questions or interest in the requirements and benefits of becoming an SIOR and joining the Connecticut/Western Massachusetts Chapter, please contact John Reed, SIOR at 860.987.4788.
