Svigals + Partners promotes Skolozdra

September 18, 2008 - Connecticut

Svigals + Partners, a full-service architectural firm based in New Haven, has elevated Robert Skolozdra to partner status. Additionally, William Moran has been appointed director of finance. These assignments come as part of the firm's growth and in recognition of 25 years of successful operation.

Skolozdra collaborates with Svigals and partner, Jay Brotman, AIA, in leading a team of 30 architects and administrators through all phases of business development, master planning, new construction and renovation.

Moran joined Svigals + Partners in May 2008. As director of finance, he performs a variety of executive oversight, accounting and financial analysis tasks. These include client interface, fiscal planning and development, payroll management, tax and financial law compliance, and budget and expenditure analysis.
