Brennan of KONE Elevators elected to MEREDA board

July 02, 2021 - Northern New England

Benjamin Brennan

Portland, ME Benjamin Brennan, sales executive for KONE Elevators, has been elected to the board of directors of the Maine Real Estate & Development Association (MEREDA), a statewide organization of commercial real estate owners, developers and related service providers.

An active member of MEREDA, Brennan serves on its Local Issues Committee and most recently took a leading role as co-chair of its DevelopME, working to engage the membership and create professional development opportunities within MEREDA for the next generation of industry professionals.

As a sales executive for KONE Elevators, Brennan is responsible for new equipment business development & project management and partners with stakeholders of new and existing real estate developments. From providing AIA continuing education, design assistance and pre-construction services to ensuring smooth transition through all stages of project execution, Brennan is involved throughout a project's life cycle.

A graduate of the University of Maine, Brennan was hired in 2013 by KONE to deliver energy efficient elevator solutions to the Northern New England market. As a green energy advocate, Brennan's interests lie in finding a medium between green technology & affordability.

"We've seen Ben become really engaged in a short amount of time, and are impressed by his can-do attitude and interest in MEREDA's initiatives," said Shelly Clark, vice president of operations for MEREDA. "We welcome Ben's enthusiasm and look forward to his active participation in furthering MEREDA's mission of promoting responsible real estate development throughout Maine."
