JLL's director of research Breslau joins Boston Business Journal's 40 under 40

September 25, 2008 - Front Section

Jones Lang LaSalle's Americas director of research Benjamin Breslau joins a list of local professionals as one of the Boston Business Journal's 40 Under 40.

He is a member of the firm's Global Research executive committee, a team that leads the strategic direction of the firm's 350 person research department globally.

The global research group covers commercial real estate in over 60 countries, and unites to produce an unrivaled global perspective on current and future property market conditions.
