Conn./Western Mass. Chapter of the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors fall meeting held at Essex Yacht Club

October 22, 2021 - Connecticut

SIOR Chapter members, sponsors, and guests at Essex Yacht Club on the Connecticut River.

Essex, CT Over 35 members, guests, and sponsors of the Connecticut/Western Massachusetts Chapter of the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors recently met at the Essex Yacht Club. A regular member business meeting was held, followed by cocktails and networking overlooking the marina and Connecticut River, and ending with a relaxing dinner.

Guest speaker Agatha Pestilli from Centerbrook Architects & Planners provided a presentation about her firm and the work they are focused on, particularly educational and work/office settings impacted by recent design changes by the pandemic.

Centerbrook was founded in 1975, as “a community of architects working together to advance place-making and the craft of building.”

SIOR represents today’s most knowledgeable, experienced, and successful commercial real estate brokerage specialists. The SIOR designation stands unchallenged for excellence in the performance of real estate services and is universally recognized as the prerequisite in the selection of a commercial real estate broker, agent, or consultant.

Please visit the Chapter’s website (www.siorct.com) to find additional information on the Connecticut/Western Massachusetts Chapter, Chapter members, and upcoming events. Should you have questions or interest in the requirements and benefits of becoming an SIOR and joining the Connecticut/Western Massachusetts Chapter, please contact John Reed, SIOR.
