Professional Women in Construction Boston Chapter name 2021-22 board of directors

October 15, 2021 - Front Section

Boston, MA The Boston Chapter of Professional Women in Construction (PWC) has named its incoming board of directors for the 2021-2022 program year.

“I am honored to serve as the PWC Boston chapter president and am looking forward to working with this incredible group of dedicated professionals who are committed to our mission,” said incoming president Caroline Fitzgerald, PE. “Their hard work is reflected in the high-quality programming and robust outreach efforts that PWC Boston has become known for. We are excited for the year ahead which will include a new mentorship committee and awards program. I want to thank and acknowledge the past board, members of our inaugural advisory board, and especially past president Sarah McGillicuddy for leading us through a year of virtual and in-person events that continued to deliver value to our membership.”

They look forward to 2021-2022 and thank their members and annual and event sponsors for their support of the organization.
