Gienapp Architects hires Sawyer as architectural designer draftsperson

November 19, 2021 - Construction Design & Engineering

Morgan Sawyer

Danvers, MA According to Gienapp Architects, a leading Massachusetts architecture firm, Morgan Sawyer has joined the firm as an architectural designer draftsman. Sawyer has a master of architecture from University of Massachusetts Amherst and a bachelor of arts in Architecture with a minor in Anthropology from Hobart & William Smith Colleges. He is assisting in the development of drawings, graphics and visuals to support all phases of the firm's design process.

Sawyer is from Syracuse, N.Y. and lives in Arlington, Mass.

"The breadth of work that Gienapp Architects does is fascinating," said Sawyer. "It's rewarding to have a position where I get to be involved in so many things in such a variety of ways. Each day is different."

"Morgan quickly proved himself very valuable on complex 3D analysis of field conditions and his unique undergraduate degree adds to the character of our office," said Gienapp Architects principal, Dale Gienapp, AIA. "We're excited that Morgan is on the Gienapp team."
