Concord, NH According to North Branch Construction, Bronson Raspuzzi and Jessica Raymond have joined the company, and Thomas Hannan has been promoted.

Raspuzzi, project manager, comes to North Branch with over 20 years of experience working in the commercial construction industry managing a multitude of commercial, multi-family, hospitality, healthcare, retail, and educational sector projects in both the public and private sectors.

Raymond, project coordinator, comes to North Branch with administrative experience, most recently working with the Concord Police Department, providing technical and administrative support to the project management team and other project team constituents.

Hannan was promoted to project manager. Hannan joined North Branch as a summer intern in 2020 working within all departments of the company over the course of the summer, spending three days per week in the office and two days per week in the field. North Branch hired Hannan at the end of the summer into the role of project coordinator while he continued his studies at Southern New Hampshire University pursuing a degree in Construction Management.

“North Branch Construction is very pleased to welcome Bronson Raspuzzi and Jessica Raymond to our team and recognize Thomas Hannan’s hard work and professional growth with a promotion to project manager, said Joseph Campbell, North Branch Construction president. “They each bring valuable experience and passion for their work to their new roles, enabling North Branch to continue the pursuit of our mission to provide unrivaled value, quality, and service in the construction industry.”
