Acella Construction Corp. promotes Johnson to senior estimator

February 18, 2022 - Construction Design & Engineering

Josh Johnson

Pembroke, MA According to Acella Construction Corp., Josh Johnson has been promoted to senior estimator. In this role, Johnson's responsibilities include accurately estimating the cost, time, materials, labor, and equipment required for construction projects. In addition, he procures vendors and subcontractors, and ensures that resources are managed, and deadlines are met.

Johnson joined Acella Construction in August of 2014 as an estimator. He is a graduate of Wentworth Institute of Technology with a bachelor's degree in Architectural Engineering.

"It gives us great pleasure to announce Josh's promotion to Senior Estimator," said Ryan LaVangie, Vice President of Sales & Marketing at Acella Construction Corporation. "He is a dedicated professional with the time management, analytical and communication skills necessary for success in his new post."
