Jones Lang LaSalle's Thompson, Cordeau and Kollar negotiate Exa's 66,000 s/f lease

October 01, 2008 - Front Section

Nordblom Co. has a new occupant at Network Dr. at Northwest Park, the 158-acre corporate campus. Exa Corp. has signed a lease for 66,000 s/f of office space, the company's new headquarters. Adele Olivier, senior VP, director of commercial property and asset management at Nordblom, managing director Tamie Thompson, senior VP Dan Cordeau and assistant VP Dan Kollar of Jones Lang LaSalle negotiated the lease to Exa.

JLL is handling the tenant improvement work for Exa and managing the move-in, which is slated for November.

"Network Drive at Northwest Park was a logical choice for Exa as it offers the quality of space and infrastructure companies seeking a headquarters location require, as well as expansion possibilities to accommodate future growth needs. We are delighted to welcome Exa to the campus," said Adele Olivier of Nordblom Company.

About Network Drive at Northwest Park

Featuring contemporary architecture, the campus is designed with an eye for sustainability and expansion. Network Drive at Northwest Park rests on approximately 158 acres at the intersection of four major arteries; Route 128, Route 3, Route 62 and Middlesex Turnpike. Built to institutional standards, the properties feature quality finishes with a robust infrastructure. This first-class office park sits adjacent to the Nordblom-controlled Northwest Park.
