Lila Delman Compass sells two Little Compton properties for $8.35 million

May 13, 2022 - Rhode Island

Little Compton, RI Lila Delman Compass brokered two sales. ‘Wildflowers’, 301 West Main Rd., sold for $4.25 million and 696 K West Main Rd. sold for $4.1 million. Deborah Ladd, Lila Delman Compass associate broker, represented the seller of 301 West Main Rd. while Ruth Bellino, sales associate based in Lila Delman Compass’ Narragansett office, represented the buyer. In the sale of 696 K West Main Rd., Lila Delman Compass sales associate Lisa Haffenreffer represented the buyer.

According to data maintained by the Rhode Island Statewide MLS, these transactions mark the top two sales in Little Compton, year-to-date.

“Little Compton is one of Rhode Island’s best kept secrets,” said Kendra Toppa, Newport County sales manager. “The benefit of Lila Delman Compass having seven strategically placed offices across the state is the agent cooperation. The sale of ‘Wildflowers’ exemplifies how Debby Ladd and Ruth Bellino worked collaboratively to the benefit of our clients.”

“We love where we live and feel fortunate to share our town with buyers who feel the same way,” said Haffenreffer. “The buyer of 696 K West Main Rd. had fond memories of her summers here in Little Compton while visiting her grandparents. We are excited to welcome her back to this special place.”

‘Wildflowers,’ 301 West Main Rd., is one of Little Compton’s finest estates, set on a ridge overlooking the Sakonnet River. This classic shingle-style Colonial home was built ca. 1927 with traditional exterior lines and an elegant interior. The grand entry hall opens to gracious living and dining rooms with high ceilings, fireplaces, and period architectural detailing. A dramatic staircase leads to the upper stories with bedrooms and office space. Rooms on the west elevation capture views of the Sakonnet River and spectacular sunsets. The expansive yard includes sweeping lawns, an in-ground pool with pool house and sauna, old stone walls, mature trees, and spectacular perennial gardens.

696 K West Main Rd. is a unique stone and cedar home offering sweeping water views. Sited on Briggs Marsh this waterfront property overlooks conserved land, the marsh, and the Atlantic Ocean. Upon entering this charming home you are welcomed into a large foyer that leads into the living room and open dining room both overlooking the water. The chef kitchen is equipped with top of the line appliances and lovely attention to detail. With five bedrooms and four bathrooms, the home is ideal for entertaining. The resort-like primary suite offers beautiful views and walks out to the gardens. This property affords endless opportunities to enjoy time outdoors, surrounded by wildlife.
