

nerej

Summit Realty Partners sells two retail development sites in New Hampshire for $3.45 million

June 03, 2022 - Northern New England

Hookset, NH Summit Realty Partners, Inc. completed two retail development sale transactions in New Hampshire.

1311 & 1313 Hooksett Rd. sold for $1.5 million on April 26th. This 3.39 acre redevelopment site was purchased by a convenience store and gas station developer and operator. The intended use of the site is a convenience store and gas station. Chris McMahon of Summit Realty Partners represented the buyer in this transaction.

192-196 Loudon Rd. in Concord, sold for $1.95 million on April 27th. This 2.36 acre development site was purchased by a car wash developer and operator. The intended use of the site will be for a car wash. McMahon represented the seller in this transaction.