Prince Lobel launches Restaurant and Hospitality Industry Group

July 08, 2022 - Front Section

Boston, MA Building on its extensive experience advising clients throughout the restaurant, entertainment, lodging, and alcoholic beverages industry, Prince Lobel has launched its Restaurant and Hospitality Industry Group.

Attorneys in the group are experienced in all aspects of this dynamic industry, including representing clients at hearings before local licensing authorities and the Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission, appearing before community groups, procuring and modifying alcoholic beverages licenses, negotiating management and operating agreements, obtaining necessary zoning approvals and other permits, facilitating the acquisition of existing businesses and associated licenses, negotiating commercial leases, and representing licensees in court. With their recent addition of attorneys with specific experience in this industry both in the private and public sector, the group will have an unmatched ability to serve the industry at all levels.
